welcomes

Kim M. Palermo, DO

We are delighted to inform you that Kim M. Palermo, DO will join Advocare Marlton Young Adult Health as one of our healthcare providers!

Dr. Palermo earned her doctor of medicine degree at Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine after receiving her master of business administration (MBA) degree at St. Joseph's University. She then went on to complete her internship and residency in internal medicine at Graduate Hospital in Philadelphia. For the past several years, Dr. Palermo has worked as a primary care physician in the Philadelphia/South Jersey region.

Dr. Palermo's interests include adolescent/young adult medicine, preventative medicine, and overall health and wellness. At Advocare Marlton Young Adult Health, she will work with her patients to form a comprehensive care plan and provide education to develop healthy habits for a lifetime.

Dr. Palermo resides in Voorhees, NJ with her husband and two sons. In her spare time she likes to run, cook and visit the Jersey shore with her family.
